DEFENDER'S CONDITION.

Said Not to be at All Injured by Going Aground.

[Special Despatch to the Transcript.] NEWPORT, R. I., August 10.—The De fender is uninjured, or, at least, this is the belief of those on board of her, and she went out again this afternoon to test her Wilson suit of sails. Neither Captain Haff nor Herbert C. Leeds believes her to be injured. The place where the Defender grounded is not the spit on the south end of Goat Island, where so many craft have been damaged, but is a sand bar directly in the channel used by the Fall River line of steamers, which require less water than does the Defender. This bar by soundings taken aboard the Defender is composed of fine sand and mud, so that while it is a preventive to entering the core at just this point, it is not a serious obstacle to run against. It is also denied aboard the craft that the Defender's boom was lifted two feet out of the water. Her hull simply forged itself into the soft shoal. This they give aboard as their reason for assuming that she is not injured, and will not be dry docked.

NAVAHOE TO RACE DEFENDER. The Cup Defender Will Yet Have Good Racing Practice,

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.] NEW YORK, Aug. 10 .- The fear that the Defender will not have a fit racer to get her in proper trim, since the Vigilant withdrew, is not likely to be realized. A local authority says that Royal Phelps Carroll, owner of the sloop Nevahoe, has consented to try conclusions with the Defender owing to Mr. Willard's refusal to sail the Vigilant against her. He will endeavor to give the Defender the racing she will require to be thoroughly tuned up for the MURDERER HOLMES WRITING. Is Making a Book That Tells of His Life and Career.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.] PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.-H. H. Holmes, the famous swindler and alleged murderer, is writing a history of himself in his cell. His legal counsel says the book will be a complete account of the prisoner's whole life. That portion of the manuseript giving the account of the killing of Nanna Williams by her sister Minnle is extremely graphic. Holmes means to make a good deal of money out of the book.

ad a thrilling experience this morning at the police station. Charles Tatro has been confined at the station for some days and is insane. This morning Officer Parrow who is in charge of the lockup, allowed the man to promenade in the corridor in front of the steel cells on the second floor. In a few minutes he became violent and rushed about the place wildly, clutching at and upsetting everything he met with. n such an attack he would have injured himself greatly had not the officer succeeded in getting him into the padded cell. Dr. Millard was hastily summoned-When he arrived he found the man in a bad condition and decided to give him some medicino. He compounded the iose and entered the cell with the officer to administer it. Mr. Tatro refused to take the medicine. The doctor took some of it and so did the officer and the man was assured then that it was harmless and drank it. The dose was distasteful to him and with an imprecation he ordered the men out. He looked very savage and threatening and officer Patrow pulled the half shut door too quickly to prevent him rushing out and the lock sprung. There was no way of opening the door from the inside. there was no one in the station but the two who were locked in with the madman in six-foot square cell. The man glared fiercely at his caged companions and they prepared themselves for an attack. The officer took off the man suspenders and stood ready to over power him and bind him with that part of his dress. The cell became most uncomfortably hot and the nervous strain to which the men were subjected made the position a very unpleasant one. The doctor and officer eyed the man and the man eyed them for just three-quarters of an hour before relief came. They do not want to repeat their

Mrs. Greer was not at home when the friends arrived, but came in soon afterwards and suited herself to circumstances as best she could. The surprise was complete. The surprisers took with them a handsome and expensive combination book case and desk which was presented Mr. 'Greer by C. H. Trotier on behalf of the company. Mr. Greer expressed his thanks quite neatly and together with his wife gave his friends a hearty reception.

FIRE DISTRICT MEETING.

The Business Quickly Disposed of by a Small Number of Voters.

Less than a dozen voters were present at the special fire district meeting at the town office, held at 2 o'clock today. E. S. Wilkinson was mederator. V. A. Whitaker explained that it had bee found best to issue a note of the fire district instead of bonds, as voted last spring, and this meeting was called to pass a vote to issue a note. It was voted issue a note for $130,000 to the Provident Institution for Savings, Boston, payable in forty annual payments. Of this amount $80,000 will be used for refunding the debt and the balance for the extension of the water works, in accordance with the vote of the an nual fire district meeting.

Among the Bricklayers and Masons.

INSANE MAN THEIR COMPANION, NINE HOURS AND BABOR TROUBLES.

The Object of the Union. Results of a Nine Hour Day Demand and the Attitude of Labor Leaders Towards Contractors.

Union No. 18, Bricklayers and Masons International union was permanently formed last night in St. Jean Baptiste hall. Patrick J. Murray of Albany, N. Y., treasurer of the International union special deputy, was organizing officer. Mr. Murray brought with him the uniou's charter and installed the officers. Temporary organization had been made some time ago and an application for a charter made to President Klein of New York. These officers we installed: President, Patrick Griffin; vice president, John La Crosse; corresponding secretary, Michael Sullivan; deputy, James F. Kelly.

The organization of this union at the present time has been watched carefully by tradesmen and contractors. Repeated attempts have been made to form a union among the local brick sayers and masons before the present activity in building. A sufficien amount of enthusiasm could not be aroused and the efforts of the organwas not until the large number of strangers came into this section that there were bright prospects for the union. At the organization last night there was a large per cent. of out of town men present. Of the forty members of the union obligated a large number are strangers. Most of them came from Adams, where they are employed in building the armory and where they expect to get more employment on the new mill. It is fully be lleved the union will grow very much in the next few months and will become a strong one. It walue to North Adams men and its permenancy depend upon the rumber of North Adams men joining it. At present some of its officers are well known tradesmen of this town, but if the membership will only be made up of transients, who hope in organizing to be able to secure temporary advantage while the building boom lasts, the union will be of little benefit, and will leave little good results when the strangers have gone where there are other opportunities. Labor leaders advocate strongly that North Adams men join the union. They state that its purpose is at present only to scoure an equalizing of conditions.

There is reason for contractors watching this movement closely. The ten-hour day has been the rule in this town and is the rule at present. Large contracts that were let recently wers let on estimates made on that length of day. Should there be an organized demand made for a nine-hour day the contractors would be in a serious plight. They could not grant the demand and labor troubles would ensue. At present Porter & Hannum have about 100 bricklayers and stonemasons at work. They are paid from $2.50 to $4 a day, depending on the trade and the men's ability. A ten per cent, increase in the wages of such an army would mean a great less to the contractors and a nine hour day would be equal to that increase. Should the men only ask for a nine hour day and nine hour's pay there would still be a difficulty. The men who are getting laborer's pay could not be offered less than the $1.50 a day they now get and the contractors, did they yield to the demand, would lose that hour which they

However it is pleasant to know that there is little probability of labor troubles marring this town's present prosperity, for a prominent labor man today said "it would be manifestly unfair to make any demands from the contractors just now The nine hour would not be demanded until next spring when all contractors could consider the matter in their estimates." If such a spirit shall prevail there will be nothing but harmony. Prominent contractors said today that they were willing to adopt union methods

Football at Williams.

The candidates for the Williams football eleven will begin training on or about September 10. It is expected that at least twenty-five men will be present to try positions. Of this number eight will be veterans, fully as many more substitutes on last season's team or players on class elevens and the rest will be freshmen. It is said that the incoming class at Williams will contain a large amount of valuable football material and innications point to a very strong team. The men will go to the training table as soon as practice begins. Several old Williams players, in-cluding such men as Orton Brown, James Ogilvie, Garfield and others have promised to oversee the work of the candidates early in the season. As soon as the team has been selected a professional coach will take charge of it. Manager Irish has scheduled the following games: September 21, Laureates of Troy at Williamstown; October 2, open date at Williamstown; 5, Colgate at Williamstown; 12, Harvard at Cambridge; 16, Tuits at Williamstown; 19. United States Military academy at West Point; 23, Yale at New Haven; 26, open date at Williamstown; November 2, Amherst at Amherst (championship game); 9, Union at Albany; 16, Dartmouth at Williamstown (championship game). Brown university has asked for a game at Williamstown October 16, but Mr. Irish has not decided whether he will meet that team this season.—Republican.

The Land Purchased of the Berkshite Cotton Manifig Co. Fr. Moran's Prosperous Church Has Outgrown the Old Place of Worship.

For some time past the parish of St. Charles' church in Adams has been crowded for room in its present edifice or Park street, and Rev. Fr. Moran, the pastor, has been considering the advisability of erecting a new church in some other place, and, if possible, to build a fleet came into the harbor on Saturday of universal interest. Thousands went church nearer the parochial residence off out to see the yachtsilluminated Saturday Columbia street. In order to carry out this idea there is but one plot of land available, that owned by the Berkshire the electric cars ran every five minutes Cotton Manufacturing company on Colum bia street, west of the mills. This land is Sunday, so crowded that standing room occupied by six tenement houses where Callaban; financial secretary, Charles hve persons who work in the company's City has been thoroughly nautical. Here Harrington; sergeant-at-arms, Cornelius mills, and, nothwithstanding the com-City has been thoroughly nautical. Here quisites in white dick trousers or picturpany's need of tenements, now that another mill is in process of erection, when esque bievele costumes, were folly young they understood it was Father Moran's inyachtsmen in their navy blue with "Reposo," "Nymphia," "Wasp" and other equally interesting names across the tention to build near his residence, if possible, they offered him the desired tract of land, and he accepted their proposition, front of their blouses and decorating their the sale having been made this week. It is a tract of land extending from the gatejaunty sailor caps. Nor was this all, for on every side were heard mysterious references to "main sails," "balloon sails," way of Father Moran's premises to his etc, while "she" seemed to be the one izers were not crowned with success. It | land beyond mill No. 1, known as the dugway bank, approximately a strip measuring 435 by 102 feet. From the street all-pervading "new woman" that was reacross this strip of land the grade rises fered to, ah! no, it was the Vigilant, or perhaps the nation's present hope, the until it reaches the lawn of the parochial residence, the rear portion being the greatest height. It is Father Moran's intention to grade this rise of land into the low section, thus leveling the plot and clearing abundant space for an edifice taken to the New York wharf to see the large enough to accommodate the parish for years. The tenement houses now on the land will be removed, and, as soon as plans are formulated, work will begin, banners. We went out among them in a and will be hurried to completion with an idea of holding service in the basement of the church by Christmas time. The new church will be of brick, and will be neat and pretty inside, although plain and pleasing outside, from an artis-tic point of view. It will have a basement to be used for parish meetings and Sunday school purposes, and, in connection with this, the new church will be erected with an eye to convenience throughout. The exact design has not been determined as yet. The architect, James Murphy of Providence, was expected today, and after a consultation with Father Moran plans will be prepared as early as next week. St Charles' parish has occupied its present church since 1867, when the building was purchased of the First Congregational cociety by the late Rev. Fr. McCourt, having been used by the Congregational so-ciety for many years as their meeting house. Since Father Moran's coming to Adams he has more than once been on the point of asking his people to build, but something unforseen has always prevent ed his previous plans having been overthrown by the general depression of the

The new edifice, which will be an ornament to the town, and a credit to Father Moran and his people, will be a great con-venience to them in being located adjoining the parochial residence, and when the church is complete and the lawn about it is nicely graded and sodded, with a grass plot extending along the street, adjoin- life was one bright holiday. ing it, this part of Columbia street will be beautified to a marked degree. WHERE IS MR. CLEVELAND AT?

Will Mr. Cleveland run for the presidency again? That is the troublous question that will not down for the Democratic politicians any more than Banquo's ghost would for poor Macbeth. No one knows the answer to this question, for no one knows but the "Consecrated One" himself at Buzzard's Bay, the workings of consecration on this subject. Our president is as silent in this matter as are the clams beneath the sand of the rolling surf that breaks before Gray Gables But so influential a paper as the Cincinnati Enquirer suggests that Mr. Whitney is being as a stalking horse, to disguise Mr. Cleveland's designs on a third term. It says: "The inference that Mr. Whitney is being used as r ratking horse is almost positive. That he is being used as a pawn on the presuchttal chessboard is an idea that appeals to the man of alert comprehension. There must be ten months of traveling over rough political roads before the next national convention meets. The officeholders get prematurely zealous in the third-term idea. They overwork it, and a rough lock has to be put on occasionally. Mr. Whitney is used as a brake. In spite of his own declaration that he is not a candidate for the nomination for the presidency, he is periodically thrown into the arena when the third term movement is in danger of destroying itself. Then, after a playful and relaxing recess with the accomplished ex-Secretary, the Cleve-

of the sage of Buzzard's Bay.'

He said:

When we consider the pstronage of this great office, the allurements of power the tempation to retain public place once gained, and, more than a'l, the availability a party finds in an incumbent whom a horde of office holders, with a zeal born of henefits received and fostered by the hope of favors yet to come, stand ready to aid with money and trained political service, we recognize in the eligibility of the President for re-election a most serious dauger to that calm, deliberate and intelligent political action which must sharacterize a government by the people. characterize a government by the people

MR. MORTON HAS ADMIRERS.

ion of possible Republican candidates for the presidency, Mr. Morton of New York state should not be omitted He has many admirers and friends scattered widely over the country. Here is a sample opinion from the Philadelphia Telegram, which expresses a quite gen eral sentiment:

Telegram, which expresses a quite general sentiment:

If the East at large should choose the candidate, it is probable that its first and last choice would be Governor and ex-Vice-President Morton. There is something more in the suggestion of his nomination than the necessity of carrying New York. The last presidential election showed that a President could be elected without the 35 votes of the state. But the Republican managers will be wise not to too confidently assume that in 1593 they will have such an overwhelming victory as the Democrate had in 1592. They will sock to secure all the votes possible, and those of New York will not be disregarded. It is confidently said that Governor Morton could carry the empire state. That is one reason for his nomination. Another is that he is a man of distinguished ability, and one in whose high sense, of political integrity the country implicitly trusts. He is, further, absolutely safe and sound on the silver question, and has no cowardly scruples against freely and often expressing himself in favor of honest, safe money. While in New York the state is divided into two Republican camps. Mr. Morton's candidaty is favorably regarded by both, and cutside the state he is mired up in no complications. But the West and South are unlikely to consent to the nomination of a man of his solid financial views. Besides, his advanced age must prove a formidable and probably insuperable barrier. The race is therefore an open one.

'A CORNER-STONE LAYING.

Here is the way in which the Adams Freeman welcomes the suggestion of a corner-stone laying for the new normal school building: "The North Adams TRANSCRIPT suggests that there be a corner-stone laying at the new normal school. Capital idea. Here is a chance for the North Adams board of trade to make a master stroke. Let us have a corner-stone laying by all means. Gather there the prominent citizens of western Massachusetts and present a true picture of North Adams ability and hospitality. The adrives of the day by President Franklin Carter of Williams college would be a fitting feature."

We are glad to see an interest awakened in this matter. Of course there should be a corner-stone laying in North Adams' best style.

"Tell a tariff reform editor that the greatury is now running behind at the rate of a million dollars a day," says the "Springfield Union," "and he will cheerfully remind you that the importation of foreign goods is rapidly increasing. If our manufacturers would only quit work altogether and let foreigners supply all our needs, the day.

treasury would have money enough, don't

The New York "Herald" says Thomas C. Platt is the only politician who does not take a vacation. He annonneed yesterday that the only vacation he expects to get will be at Saratoga, when the state convention meets. He spoke of it joyously, as though he expected to have fun then.". Yes, Tom Platt is like cholers or yellow fever. He will never cease getting in his work till he is frozen out.

Senators Hill, Murphy and Gorman are in Saratoga to determine measures for making Democratic victory possible throughout the nation. They might just as well be gambling as trying such political chances, and there are opportunities for the tormer prictice left in Saratoga

Speaking of the new park present the other evening on the street one man said as he watched the crowd moving up and down Main street: "It's to be hoped that this whole town will not have to stand up another summer." And the man expressed a very general sentiment.

And now Adams is to have a handsome new church. Our sister town seems to being growing in things spiritual as well as in things material. As Adams is fortunate, North Adams rejoices at it, and again it is our pleasant lot to say: "Good for Adams."

The hottest kind of a hot wave is said to be on its way to New England. Well, anything but the mongrei, eath-provoking weather recently experienced.

WHAT BELMONT'S SCHOOL COMMITTEE THINK OF MR. HALL.

A Highly Moral and Strong Christian Character It Says.

The following is a copy of the letter sent I. F. Hall, superintendent elect of our public schools, in reply to his recent letter of resignation sent to the Belmont school committee.

BELMONT, July 17, 1895. Mr. I. Freeman Hall;--

DEAR SIR-We, the Belmont School Committee, have received with sincere regret your resignation as superintendent, and in accepting it desire to ex. press for ourselves and in behalf of the town, a warm appreciation of your services during the last five years.

As we look back upon our schools at the time you became superintendent, when, without leadership, systematic effort or well defined aims, the teachers and the committee were striving for a better state of affairs, and compare that condition with our present excellent standing, it becomes a pleasure and a duty to express our obligation to you for this marked advance. We feel confident that under vour guidance we have found the right line of action, and that by extere ; our work along that line we shall realize our ers, playing and probably believing that highest hopes for the upbuilding of the schools of Belmont.

We desire to thank you for a comprehensive and practical system of education; for the progressive and cheerful spirit with which you have inspired our teachers; for the ability and judgment you have shown in reorganizing our schools, and for the wise and kindly manner with which you have aided us by advice, suggestions, and constant service during these years,

In especial, we desire to recognize the highly moral and strong Christian character which you have brought to the duties of your office, as well as the faithfolness and courtesy with which those duties have been discharged.

While we deplore the loss of your services, we most heartily rejoice in the larger opportunity which is opened to you, feeling sure that those qualities which you have here displayed will exercise a deserved influence in ever extending lines of usefulness. With sincere regards and best wishes for your welfare, oride ourbeives Your sincers friends HARRY H. BALDWIN, MARY F. W. HOMER, MEHITABLE B. FROST, LEONARD B. CLARK,

HERBERT F. ROCKWOOD,

JOHN H. EDWARDS. Belmont School Committee. Mr. Hall is looking for a house here and will soon move to this town to arrange for the commencement of his duties.

THE EMPIRE' STATE EXPRESS. The 148 Miles from Syracuse to Albany

Covered in 140 Minutes. A feat in railroading was performed Saturday on this section of the New York Central, which, though not infrequently paralleled on this most efficient and speedy of roads, is certainly calculated to make one wonder. The feat was nothing less than the accomplishment by the great Empire State Express of a distance of 148 miles in 140 minutes, something scarcely possible, with safety, to a less thoroughly governed and mechanically

The Empire arrived in Syracuse Saturday afternoon forty-one minutes late, was delayed three minutes by its stop at Utica, and four minutes in this city by accom modation train No. 72, but arrived in Albany at 7.08, having made the 148 miles from Syracuse in 140 minutes, this of course being actual running time with stops deducted. Such moving across country for such a distance is enough to convince any old time obstructionist that we of the present day are actually "flying" into the face of Providence.

Old 898, the railroader's criterion of locomotive excellence, had Jacob Vrooman of Schenectedy at the the throttle and was fired by Peter Wagner of St. Johnsville, both of whom feel justifiable pride in the latest achievement of their iron steed .-Little Falls Times.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

-The workmen who have been engaged in the tramp room at the police station have completed their work. -The engineers in the different establishments in town are receiving circulars for examination under the new law. -Harry Fletcher, a boy who has been inder treatment at the hospital for tuberculosis of the nip joint, is able to be about. Lemuel Rich is about to erect two cottages at the corner of North and Hathaway streets. He has one cellar completed and another begun. -The executive committee of Division 4, A. O. H., will meet tomorrow to make further arrangements for the division's fair.

-The Franco-American club will hold a meeting in its hall in Boland's block tomorrow at 12.30 o'clock. Important business is to be considered and it is hoped every member will be present.

-Clan McIntyre held a very pleasant talk last night in its hall in the fire district block on State street. The evening was passed by good old songs and good old stories. -Rev. George H. Filian of Antioch, Syria, now an exile in this country, will give a lecture, illustrated with stereopticon views, on "Armenians in Turkey," at the Congregational chapel, Friday evening, August 16. Admission twenty-five cents. -A party of eight bicyclists, five gentlemen and three ladies, arrived in town yesterday from the west and took a train here for Fitchburg. The custom of taking long journeys on wheels seems to be growing in popularity. Quite a number of touring wheelmen have passed through

North Adams recently.

-The special train that was run to heshire last night carried very few people from this town. It was run on account of a lawn fete held under the auspices of the Church of the Assumption and carried a good number from Adams and intermediate stations. The Columbian lawn festival doubtless helped to decrease the attendance from this town.

-A brilliant banner advertising the Springfield diocesan field day has been swung over Main street between the Wilson and Martin block. The banner is a very fine one and was painted by John White of Barnard's store. The local temperance society feels the greatness of the gathering that will be here labor day and wishes to rouse the townspeople to an equal realization.

-An old resident says that the barn owned and occupied by Alpheus Smith, the famous landlord of an earlier day, is standing on the John Wheeler farm in Clarksburg. The barn stood in the rear of the old Arcade, which stood where the Wilson now does, and sheltered stage horses and horses driven by travelers long before the days of railroads. It is said the barn was sold to Albert Haskins, who took it down, removed it and erected it on the spot where it now stands.

-The night men at the depot say that they have experienced much relief since license went into effect in Williamstown. Before that time there was generally a delegation of "drunks" to go out on the midnight train, and Saturday night especially it was liable to be pretty boisterous about the depot for half or three quarters of an hour before the train went. but now all is quiet; as a rule, and the railroad employes appreciate the change, which they pronounce very marked.

-A petition is in circulation asking the county commissioners to relocate West Main street between the Main street bridge and the bridge at Braytonville. The petition is being signed by property holders on that street. Who feel that there is need of many changes. But little at-tention has been paid by builders of houses on that street and the result is that there is a good deal of irregularity that needs correction before the electric road is built. This is the feeling of the property holders, whose petition will of course receive prompt attention at the hands of the county commissioners.

-The work of laying the conduits for the telephone wires will soon be completed. The Main street conduit will extend about two rods beyond the bridge A manhole will be made each side of the bridge and from these manholes iron pipes will extend through the abutments, while the cable will be suspended under the bridge. The only conduit to be laid in addition to those done and now under way will be laid in Holden street from Main to Centre street, and to connect some of the large buildings with the mains. The work is being done with a thoroughness that commands universal approval and the men in charge have shown themselves masters of their business in every respect. Bull-Foremen F. J. Mahoney left town last night land, Me., to act in a similar capacity on a big job the New England Telephone company is doing in that city. -A number in this town will be interested to know that the sixth triennial reunion of the teachers and pupils of Power's institute will be held at Bernardston August 21. No exercises will be held in the forenoon, but dinner will be served at 12 o'clock in the commodious pavilion at Syloview grove, followed by toasts and speeches. An informal reception will be held at the town hall in the evening. The portraits of Edward Epps Powers, Mrs. E. C. Jenness, and L. McL Jackson will be presented to the association. Free entertainment will be provided for those wishing to remain over night, but it will be necessary to not: y the secretary, Miss R. E. Bowker, in advance. Special excursion rates have been granted by the Boseverything that is "good," they are hard ton and Maine railroad between Springfield and Keene, N. H., also between Brattleboro and Bellows Falls. All trains will stop at Bernardston on the 21st. Tickets will be good to return on the 22d. A large attendance is expected and the commit tees are sparing no pains to make the reunion a success.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The Williamstown Water company has made arrangements with the fire district commissioners, D. J. Nevland, Charles S. Cole and Fred Moore, to supply the district with water and hydrants for fire purposes. This will necessitate paralleling the entire system and the laying of about four miles of six-inch pipe and one mile of four-inch pipe. About sixty-five hydrants will be put in.

W. Bullock the Flora Glen property and is constructing there a storage reservoir to hold about 10,000,000 gallons. This will be for a feeder in case of doubt or an unusual draft on the water supply caused by fire. A large force of men is now at work on the dam, which will be thirty feet higher than the cold spring. It is expected to complete most of this work before winter sets in. The estimated cost of these improvements is about $22,000.

The action of the water company in taking this step is highly commendable and very gratifying to property owners and the people of the town penerally. Sufficient protection from fire is what the town has always lacked, but the need is now to be supplied, as all will be giad to know. The liberal course of the water company in this matter shows a disposition to stand squarely by the interests of the people and its action will be appreciated by all living in the fire district.

Miss Alvia Haskins of North Adams is the guest of Miss Anna Whelden.

Edward Moon was in court yesterday morning charged with assault on John Donnely. He was fined $9.20.

Agent Wheeler of the Gamwell Fire Alarm company completed his work of placing the fire alarm boxes which will e as follows: At Varley's hotel near the depot, at the corner of Hall and Depot streets, at Bates' shop, at the corner of Main and Thomas streets, at the corner of Water and Main streets, on Spring street, at the corner of Park and Main streets, at the corner of Snyder avenue and Main street, at the corner of North and Bulkley streets, making in all nine boxes and forming almost a complete circle around the town so that new boxes can be added at any time without changing the lines In addition there will be an automatic striker on the Congregational church, a gong and *sparate whistle at the bleachery and one at the Williamstown Manufactur-

Navy Department Neutral In Chinese Troubles.

Americans at Shanghai Beg Leave to Differ With Minister Denby.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—In the event of war between Russia and Japan, the United States may find itself an unwilling party unless the Japanese retreat from a position which they assumed toward the United States during the last war with China.

It is not generally known that just be-fore the declaration of the armistics which preceded the signature of the treaty of pence an issue had grown up between the United States and Japan that threatened to lead to actual hostilities between the two countries, and that a hostile clash was perhaps only averted by the con-clusion of the Chinese war.

This issue arose through the assertion by the Japanese authorities of the right to search American vessels. They insisted that they had a right to search an American vessel, and, if they chose, to take from can vessel, and, if they chose, to take from her any Chinese or any enemy they might find, even though they were but pas-sengers. Minister Dun very promptly denied the existence of any such right on the part of a combatant, and a hot corre spondence ensued

The Japanese insisted on their right, and even when Mr. Don reminded them that the United States had gone to war with Great Britain on just this issue, and had forced the abandonment of any claim to such a right, they refused to abate theh pretensions one jot, though the minister intimated that the first assertion of such a right would be regarded by the United States as an unfricadly act.

The Chinese Troubles. Consul General Jernigan has taken a great deal of interest in the recent Chinese troubles, and has sent several dispatches to the state department giving information and making suggestions for pro tection.

It is the impression among some officials that the consuls, without being fully aware of the situation, have asked for troops from the warships where it would be impracticable for vessels to go. The state department has not called upon the navy for any ship or force to land and proceed for any snip of 1950s into the interior.

Minister Denby has authority to call

Corporate for United upon Admiral Carpenter for United States forces, and under his instructions the admiral is bound to furnish them. Both state and navy departments believe that the United States representatives on. the ground, clothed with ample powers, are better able to act for the best than those here in Washington.
Acting Secretary McAdoo said yesterday that he could give Admiral Carpenter no instructions, and especially as Minister Denby had not asked that anything be done. As to the suggestion that the admiral should send a force in boats, he said that the minister and admiral were better able to know whether such a course was wise. It naight be a sacrifice of men to send them several hundred miles into the interior.

The British government had more cause The Sritish government had more cause for making a demonstration than the United States government, and yet no English force had been sent to the scene of the trouble. Mr. McAdoo said that an order from him to Admiral Carpenter might wholly interfere with plans or operations the commander had in view or under way.

Americans at Shanghai have sent a cable dispatch to President Cieveland pro testing against United States Minister Denby's action in consenting that the British consul should represent America in the Sze-Chuen inquiry. They recom-mended a reconstruction of the commission by sending an American official of adequate rank and the exclusion of implicated Chinese officials. They also recommend that a marine escort accompany the commission.

Sea Captain Murdered.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10. — Captain Sproule, of the British steamship Capac, who landed the survivors of the Prince Oscar disaster, tells a story concerning the alleged murder of Captain Steger, of the American bark Edward Kidder, by four unknown seamen, neur a South America: port. The supposed murderers belonged on an American bark, the William W. Crapo, which they afterward stole and made their escape, and, it is believed, perished in a fire which destroyed the ship, near Rio de Janeiro. The Kidder put in at Topmast, a small port on th western coast of Peru, on the night of There were a few other foreign and coasiwise vessels in the harbor at the time, the crews of most of which had gone ashore. It was while there that Captain Sleger was murdered.

Four Against One.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 10.—T. D. Marshall, state senator-elect, and two companions, shot and killed R. T. Dinkins of this city at Brandon yesterday. Marshall and three friends, H. H. Coleman, R. P. Fox and W. P. Vollens, drove to Brandon in a back and met Dinkins at the depot. As he turned a corner of the building they opened fire on him, and shot him 15 times opened the on him, and shot him 15 times. Dinkins was unarmed, but grabbed Marshall's pistol from him as he fired the first shot. Two weeks ago Dinkins, it is said, spread a report that Marshall had attempted an infamous crime while he and Marshall had roomed together. Marshall and his companions were arrested.

Keeping Promises. NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Notices have been sent out by the Morgan-Belmont syndicate to those who participated in the government bond issue that they will refund in currency another installment, amounting to 34,4046 per cent, or $81,404.60 on every $100,000 gold advanced for handling that portion of the loan distributed in this country. A payment of 40 per cent was made some time ago, making the total payments to date about 75 per cent, or three-fourths of the whole. The total three-fourths of the whole. amount advanced for the American por tion of the long was about $32,500,000 and the amount of the money returned yesterday a little over $11,000,000.

Probably Ill-Fated Ship.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—It is believed that the vessel which, with the British ship Prince Oscar, was sunk in collision off the east of Brazil, is the British ship Helt Francisco for Queenstown April 23. On July 9, four days before the collision, she was spoken about 442 miles south of the scene of the disaster. With a fair wind the position indicated. The Holt Hill was a four-masted steel ship of 2269 tons register.

The industries continue to make progress, and higher prices for iron and steel products prove the supply has not yet out run the demand. The anthracite coal market is completely demoralized, and prices have again yielded a little to about the lowest over known. Sales of wool are not as much inflated by speculation as they were during the first half of July, but they still considera-bly exceed the actual consumption in the manufacture, amounting in the three chief markets to 6,259,300 pounds, against 9,271,700 pounds for the corresponding

Some staple cotton goods have again advanced in price, and the market is unusually strong for the season. Fallures for the week were 225 in the United States, against 264 last year, and 45 in Canada against 54 last year.

Defender Struck Goat Island Spit While on a Practice Spin.

Not Thought to Have Been Greatly Damaged.

Anticipated Race With the Jubilee Has Been Declared Off.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 10 .- The Defender went out for a spin yesterday afternoon, and, as she was returning to the harbor, ran aground hard and fast on the spit which runs out from Goat island. The tide was on the ebb, and after several trials it became apparent that the sloop could not be freed before high tide.

The run yesterday was taken merely for the nurnose of keeping the boat in tune, and she tacked up and down the harbor for several hours, manouvering with her sails and practicing her crow. After her These are not old, shop-worn or slight heave of the hull, followed by a cessation of motion, and they knew the sloop had grounded on the spit which nuns out from the island.

The tide was obbing fast, and when, after futile attempts to free the sloop, it became apparent that the crow must wait for the next tide, they busied themselves in laying plans for floating their boat. These were put into effect soon after 8 o'clock last evening, when the tide was Well on Townrd the Flood.

The men were sent out on the boom to try to "cant" the sloop off. Their combined weight so far aft was what was needed, and the plan worked excellently.

At 8:20 the Defender floated clear of the spit and at once preceded up the harbor to her anchor ige. It is thought the sleep is uninjured, as she grounded easily and the tide did not loave her high enough to cause any strain. Her bottom will, however, be examined by a diver.

At 6 o'clock last night all hopes of a race between the Jubilee and Defender were crushed by the unexpected departure of the Jubilee for Boston. The question of the race was the chief subject for anxiety among yachtsmen yesterday, and the matter was seriously considered by all interested. At one time it was announced, on what seemed good authority, that the race would take place. This was shown to be incorrect, however, by the departure of the Boston boat, which was the only answer vouchsafed to the many queries concerning the situation

Neither the captain of the Defender nor the Jubilee would say a word about the matter, and perhaps their silence was taken for consent to the proposition to race again. At any rate, a race was generally expected today, and the knowledge that it will not take place has caused much disappointment among the citizens and many of the yachtsmen of Newport. The Defender will remain here till Sun-There is promise of large day night, when she will sail for New Templars' Book.

Hoston, Aug. 10.—A most beautiful souvenir will be produced for the coming concleve of Knights Templar. It will be official, and has been prepared by the triennial committee on publication. Its pages contain not only important matter immediately connected with the events of the approaching conclave, but in addition valuable papers are presented written expressly for it by some of the best informed members of the order. Portraits of dis-tinguished Knights Templar, half-tone outs of buildings identified with the growth of Masonry in this state, illustrations of monuments and points of historic interest in and about Boston, are given in great profusion, together with much other matter calculated to render the volume of special benefit to visiting Sir Knights, as well as one worthy of being preserved as a durable memorial of the triennial conclave of Knights Templar of 1895.

Town Robbed.

AMESBURY, Mass., Aug. 10.—The town of Newton, N. H., has new developments on the famous forged bond case. The $10.— 000 worth of 10-year bonds paid by the town in 1885 and placed in the town safe by the then chairman of the board of selectmen, Almon F. Drake, has been stolen. One of the present board of selectmen called upon Mr. Drake and asked him if he knew where the cancelled bonds were. Thinking he could at once place his hand upon them, he went to the town office and found that they were missing, and diligent search failed to find them. The town will probably be called to produce $20,000 worth of cancelled bonds at the October term of court in the suit brought by Johnson of Haverbill to recover on a No. 8 $500 alleged forged bond.

Killed a Playmate. MALDEN, Mass., Aug. 10.—Edgar Perker, 8 years old, and Mayland Nash, 12 years old, in company with several other boys, started out yesterday to shoot birds. Nash had a 32-caliber revolver and was Ages and a se-concer revolver and was fooling with it, when it was accidentally discharged. The hall entered Parker's left side and passed through his heart, killing him almost instantly. Nash threw his revolver away and ran into the woods, where he was found several hours afterward in an exhausted condition. He will not be arrested. The Parker boy was a great favorito.

Stuart Girl Was Murdered.

Boston, Aug. 10.-Judge Forsaith of the municipal court, in his finding upon the inquest in the case of Alberta Stuart, says that he finds that the girl came to her death July 23, 24 or 25 from asphyxia by drowning, and that he is of the opinion that a severe assault had been committed upon the girl, and that she was immersed while alive. The evidence does not disclose by whom the act of violence was committed. He does not find it on the evidence to be a case of snicide.

Crops Eaten.

ROYALTON, Vt., Aug. 10.—Farmers on the hills in this town and other Windsor county towns are suffering from the depredations of grasshoppers. In many instances pasturage is injured so as to materially reduce the yield of milk, and other stock is suffering. In some instances fields of grain are injured severely and have been plowed under and the crops given up for this year.

Festive Knights of Pythias.

LIVERMORE FALLS, Me., Aug. 10.—The special train to convey the Knights of Pythias of Lewiston and Portland and other points, after the Pythian day concert and Evergreen park at midnight, was detained all night for lack of telegraphic norment in night for lack of telegraphic orders, the wires having come down. The kma, its made things lively during the night, and had a pig race all over town early in the morning.

Loss of $175,000.

WARREN, Mass., Aug. 10.—The foundry of the Knowles steam pump works, together with a large wooden pattern house, were destroyed by fire last ovening. The fire caught from flasks set afire from uncooled castings. This fire throws out of work about 150 men. The total loss will amount to about $175,000. This is the third time this foundry has been burned.

Nearly 700 Out. WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 10.—The strike of the 46 doffers and backboys at the Bos-

Jury Found Negligence.

PLYMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 10.—Coroner Dow of Littleton yesterday held an in-quest on the railroad accident that occurred near here. The jury found Conductor Tyler and Pilot Engineer Coburn of the frught train guilty of negligence. Warrants charging them with manslaughter will at once be issued by the county solicitor.

Increase in Dividends.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 10.-The report of the mill earnings for the July quarter shows that it has been prosperous Thirty corporations, representing $19,170, 900 in capital, paid regular dividends amounting to $358,475, an average of 187 per cent. The average for the April quarter was 1.72 per cont.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Workmen in the Holmes castle revealed a strange construction yesterday, which carries more terrible suggestions of the conspirator's work. In the closet room in the second floor, where Holmes used to sleep, there is a gas pipe running over the floor. Where the pipe met the wall it turned down into the floor and beneath the boards is a cutoff. The pipe runs directly to the window room where it is believed Mrs O'Connor was murdered. Sitting in the room Holmes could turn on the current with ease and fill the dark sleeping apartment with deadly gas, asphyxiating the occupants. The cutoff was a secret It was reached simply by lifting a board
